Prepare to Place Your Bids

There can rarely have been a collection of such awe-inspiring items, adventures and experiences as Chivas Brothers has brought under the cyber-gavel for Chivas 200.

Chivas 200 is an anniversary: two hundred years since the founding of Chivas Brothers, creators of one of the world's finest premium blended Scotch Whiskies, Chivas Regal. It's a tremendous opportunity to raise money for charities around the world on an unprecedented scale.

On behalf of Chivas Brothers I wish to extend a vote of immense gratitude to all those whose ceaseless endeavours have made this project possible. Charities, their trustees, patrons and supporters have worked tirelessly to produce the vast array of lots for Chivas 200. It has been a complex, ambitious and challenging task. We are grateful to all our web partners for their support and, of course, to every individual lot donor.

To everyone who has helped turn this vision into reality, thank you.

As you leaf through this catalogue I'm sure you'll agree that the extent of the lots on offer, the sheer breath-taking stature and imagination involved, and the once-in-a-lifetime opportunity that many of them represent, provides a guarantee of success for Chivas 200.

What would constitute our criteria for success? I believe they would lie in achieving world-wide coverage and fund generation for charities around the world. Chivas 200 has linked with eBay, the world's largest online marketplace.

The catalogue will fire your imagination. Our hope, also, is that you will join in and help us source further lots. We can all do more to raise a lot for charity; the more lots we have, the greater the funds we will generate.

Check out the lots on offer and I'm sure you'll share our view here at Chivas that it only takes a little to give a lot.

Toby Hartwell - Marketing Director, CHIVAS REGAL
