

At 22, I had the opportunity to be able to impact and affect the lives of many individuals.

It is through AIESEC and SAHARA that I have not only helped others, but have also developed myself.

I have learnt about the issue of SUBSTANCE ABUSE and understood the relevance and the implications that it has on society.

I am an AIESECer

“ I MADE A DIFFERENCE. YOU CAN TOO. ”

Stefanie Nühn
Netherlands

KEY NOTE SPEAKER:

DR. KIRAN BEDI

PANELISTS:

MS. PRIYA DUTT
Member of Parliament

DR. RANJANA KUMARI
Director, Centre for Social Research

MS. BIDISHA PILLAI
Project Officer,
UNODC
India

DR. DEEPAK GUPTA
Child & Adolescent
Psychiatrist

DR. ARUNA MUKIM
Film Censor Board,
Government of India

FOR FURTHER DETAILS CONTACT:
ADITI DALMIA
9971311554

AIESEC in Delhi University
would like to invite you for:

Date: 9th September

Time: 12.30 pm

Venue: Hansraj College Auditorium

“ One in four deaths in the world can be attributed to alcohol, tobacco, or illicit drug use. ”

Breaking Free is a two hour event which extensively covers all aspects of substance abuse and related issues.

This is the platform for you to come and share your views with Dr Kiran Bedi, Ms Priya Dutt and other eminent personalities to create an impact.

SPONSORED BY:

SUPPORTED BY:

PRINT PARTNER:

YOUTH PARTNER:

ONLINE MEDIA PARTNER:

STUDENT PARTNER:

ONLINE RADIO PARTNER:

KNOWLEDGE PARTNER:

THE EVENT IS OPEN TO ALL WITH NO REGISTRATION FEE.